Gideon Mead's record (#22) in the Surrogate Court, Warren County Municipal Bldg, Lake George, NY shows a death date of 1814. In Gideon Mead's papers, located at the Warren Co. Municipal Bldg, Lake George, NY at the Surrogate Court, there was no will. A cover sheet showed that the executor of Gideon's estate was Charles J. Starbuck, and the witness was Charles Leggett. Starbuck signed on 29 Sep 1814. An inventory of Gideon's estate was taken 23 Nov 1814 and signed on 4 Feb 1815 by Charles Leggett. The inventory was "Taken in the Presence of two of the Legatees" but there was no indication of the names of heirs in the folder. Gideon's estate was valued at $343.84 and it included 1 horse, 1 cow, and 6 sheep along with household items. One interesting note was that $132.00 was shown as "due from the Executors of Milecent Thompson" (his sister)].

Birth dates from Newcomb's children are from Waltier & Campbell website <http://www.waltier.com/>. They show Newcomb Mead's parents as Gideon Mead and Martha Fiske but a primary source is not given. I have chosen to show Newcomb as the son of Nehemiah Mead and Sarah Newcomb, but I have not found a primary source to prove his parents. Waltier and Campbell report they have a land record showing that Newcomb Mead and his son Warren bought land in Milan, Michigan on 23 Sep 1833.
