1. JONATHAN⁹ MEAD (*JOHN*⁸, *WILLIAM*⁷, *PRICILLA*⁶, *RICHARD*⁵ MEADE, *THOMAS*⁴, *THOMAS*³ MEDE, *THOMAS*², *THOMAS*¹) was born January 05, 1664/65 in Horseneck, Fairfield Co, CT, and died 1726 in prob. On 6 Feb 1711/12, his brother Benjamin and his widow Martha, were appointed administrators of his estate. Jonathan's estate was distributed on January 27, 1727/78 by By John Renals, Sr., and John Renals, Cooper (source: Ryerson, Geri, Transcriber, "Abstract of Probate Records at Fairfield Co, CT," USGenWeb Project, Fairfield Co, CT, Vol. 7, 1721-1750.)

THE BLACKSMITH JONATHAN¹⁰ MEAD (*JONATHAN*⁹, *JOHN*⁸, *WILLIAM*⁷, *PRICILLA*⁶, *RICHARD*⁵ MEADE, *THOMAS*⁴, *THOMAS*³ MEDE, *THOMAS*², *THOMAS*¹) was born September 15, 1689 in Greenwich, CT³, and died 1749 in Greater Nine Partners, Dutchess Co, NY⁴. She married STEPHEN HOLMES February 27, 1717/18 in Greenwich, CT by Ebenezer Mead, J.P., son of STEPHEN HOLMES and MARY HOBBY. He was born Abt. 1690 in Stamford, Fairfield Co, CT, and died in Greenwich, CT.

He married (1) MARTHA WEEKS February 28, 1722/23 in Greenwich, CT by Rev. Richard Sackett. She was born December 14, 1703 in Greenwich, CT, and died Bef. 1733. He married (2) SARAH BOUGHTON Abt. 1733 in Vermont. She was born Abt. 1710 in CT?, and died Bef. 1769 in VT.

Notes for TIMOTHY MEAD: It is uncertain when Timothy's first wife died and when he remarried, but Swan shows that Ezra was the son of 2nd wife, Sarah. Timothy moved from Horseneck with his family by 1743 to Nine Partners, in Dutchess Co, NY and lived close to his cousin Nathan. He was on the 1765 tax list in Amenia, Dutchess Co, NY. In 1769, Timothy moved to Rutland Co, VT with his 5 sons and 1 daughter. Mead (1901) wrote that, "These were the first white people that ever settled in Vermont," but what he probably meant is they were the first English; there were French people there even earlier. Timothy is considered the patriarch of the Vermont Meads. His will was probated on December 04, 1784 in Vermont (probably Rutland Co.).

Children of TIMOTHY MEAD and MARTHA WEEKS are:

Generation No. 3

6. DARIUS¹¹ MEAD (JONATHAN¹⁰, JONATHAN⁹, JOHN⁸, WILLIAM⁷, PRICILLA⁶, RICHARD⁵ MEADE, THOMAS⁴, THOMAS³ MEDE, THOMAS², THOMAS¹) was born March 08, 1728/29 in Horseneck, Greenwich, Fairfield Co, CT, and died April 1791 in Mercer Co, PA near Fort Franklin⁷. He married RUTH CURTIS 1750 in Stamford, Fairfield Co, CT. She was born May 26, 1734 in Stamford, CT, and died 1794 in Meadville, PA⁸.

Notes for DARIUS MEAD:

On February 25, 1770 his Land in Dutchess Co. NY was sold to Simon Dakin (source: Dutchess County, NY Land Record, County Clerk's Office, Book 5, pp. 412-414, Distributed 10 May 2004 to the Mead Researchers Group by Campbell, Wanda Mead).

In 1774, Darius relocated from Hudson, NY to Wyoming Valley, PA and in 1776, he enlisted in Lancaster Co. Militia. Because of some adverse claims on the lands in Wyoming, PA Darius moved about six miles north of the town of Northumberland. For a time, Darius moved his family to Sunbury, PA where he worked as an inn-keeper, and he erected a distillery. By the close of the revolutionary war, he had accumulated a large estate, so he moved back to Wyoming, PA, hoping that the land disputes were over. After making many improvements over three years, he was finally forced to leave with only a small portion of his household furniture (source: Reynolds, 1938). He returned to Sunbury in 1787, where he went back to inn-keeping, but he was unable to earn back the fortune he lost. In 1788, he went with his brother John to visit the country north and west of him, and the next year he moved his family to the banks of the French Creek in Crawford County, PA. Later he did receive a remuneration from the state of PA for his lands in Wyoming. In 1789, he went to Meadville, PA with his sons David and John. For several months in 1794, Darius took his family to Franklin, PA, about 25 miles from Meadville. Darius was captured by Indians in the summer and "his body was found side by side with that of one of his captors, Captain Bull, a Delaware Chief. The duel had been to the death and they were buried side by side where found, near the Shenango creek in Mercer County" (Albert, 1896). Darius is buried in Meadville, PA.

Notes for RUTH CURTIS: Hers was the first death by natural causes among the white settlers in Crawford County, PA.

Children of DARIUS MEAD and RUTH CURTIS are:

15. i. MAJ. GEN. DAVID¹² MEAD, b. January 17, 1751/52, Hudson, NY; d. August 28, 1816, Crawford Co, PA, age 65.
- ii. ASHEL MEAD, b. August 09, 1754, Hudson, Columbia Co, NY⁹; d. July 02, 1778, Wyoming, Luzerne Co, PA in a massacre by Indians.

- iv. RUTH MEAD, b. April 16, 1761, Hudson, Columbia Co, NY¹⁰; d. June 1819; m. HUGH DEPREE.
17. v. DARIUS MEAD, JR., b. December 09, 1764, Hudson, Columbia Co, NY; d. May 19, 1813, Brokenstraw, Warren Co, PA.

- vii. JOSEPH MEAD, b. June 25, 1772; d. 1848; m. HANNAH BOONE; b. October 07, 1778, Exeter, Berks Co, PA; d. February 24, 1856, Warren, PA.
- viii. ANSEL MEAD, b. 1774, PA.

7. ELI¹¹ MEAD (JONATHAN¹⁰, JONATHAN⁹, JOHN⁸, WILLIAM⁷, PRICILLA⁶, RICHARD⁵ MEADE, THOMAS⁴, THOMAS³ MEDE, THOMAS², THOMAS¹) was born Abt. 1730, and died Bef. 1820 in Painted Post, Steuben Co, NY. He married MERCY HOLMES February 07, 1760 in South Amenia Presbyterian Church, Dutchess Co, NY¹¹. She was born Abt. 1732.

Notes for ELI MEAD:

This is probably the Eli Mead who was an early settler in Painted Post, which was part of Ontario Co, NY in 1793 and was later part of Steuben County, NY (Woodford, 1879, p. 288). Eli Mead arrived in the area that became Painted Post [then Ontario Co] NY in about 1788, and his son Eldad settled in the town in 1790. Eli Mead was called one of the pioneers in lumber manufacture and raft navigation in Painted Post (Near, 1911, p.240).

Roberts (1891) noted that Eli came from Wyoming [presumably Wyoming Co, NY], but other references did not mention where he was born. Eli Mead Esq is the only Mead listed for 1790. At that time he had no sons listed, and there were three females listed, presumably his wife and 2 daughters. Eli Mead was the first Supervisor of the town of Painted Point, and he served as one of several Justices of the Peace (McMaster, 1853). Painted Post was organized as part of Ontario Co. NY in 1798 and, as town supervisor, Eli Mead represented the town at the board which met at Cannadaigua. "Mr. Mead went on foot, by Indian trails, through the vast wilderness nearly seventy miles to meet his associates from the different scattered settlements in the county seat. There was scarce habitation on his route, and he was compelled to 'take his hotel and bar in a knapsack upon his back in the daytime, and use them for a pillow at night, under the protecting roof of the dense foliage of the trees near his path.' When the county of Steuben was erected in 1796, Painted Post became one of its original towns" (Woodford, 1879, p. 288). Roberts (1891) wrote that in 1789, Eli Mead was one of only four white men in the region, and that he was living at the mouth of the creek that bears his name (p. 304).

In the 1800 census, he was listed as Ely Mead and his family included a son under 10, his wife, and 2 daughters. From this census we know that he was over 45, so we can place his birth date before 1755. His son was born between 1790 and 1800.

In the 1810 census, Eli is over 45 years and has a son aged 10-16, so I assume the son was born about 1800. His wife is over 45 (but several years younger than Eli) and he has a daughter aged 16 - 26. This could be a 2nd wife, since his son Eldad is quite a bit older than the son listed in this census. The 2nd daughter is either deceased or married and moved away by 1810.

Eli was not listed in the 1820 census, so I assume that he died before 1820. If he was born about 1730, he lived to be over the age of 80. 1820 census Eli is no longer listed; his son Eldad is still living in Painted Post.

Notes for ELDAD MEAD:

What we know about Eldad Mead, son of Eli Mead, of Painted Post, Steuben Co

Eldad arrived in Painted Post, Steuben Co, NY in 1790 (Woodford, 1879), after the census was taken. Eldad lived in Painted Post from at least 1790 through the 1840 census.

In the 1800 census, he was living next door to his father Eli, and his age was listed as 26 - 45. In the 1810 census, I assume that Eldad is over 45, since his father was listed separately and was not living in Eldad's household. This narrows Eldad's birth date to about 1764 - 1774. If Eli was born about 1730, then Eldad fits as his son.

8. JONATHAN¹¹ MEAD (*JONATHAN*¹⁰, *JONATHAN*⁹, *JOHN*⁸, *WILLIAM*⁷, *PRICILLA*⁶, *RICHARD*⁵ MEADE, *THOMAS*⁴, *THOMAS*³ MEDE, *THOMAS*², *THOMAS*¹) was born Abt. 1735 in Greenwich, CT, and died May 11, 1800 in Plasterville, Chenango Co, NY, age 65¹². He married SARAH THOMPSON February 02, 1758 in South Amenia Presbyterian Church, Dutchess Co, NY, daughter of AMOS THOMPSON and SARAH ALLING. She was born Abt. 1738, and died February 10, 1804 in North Norwich, Chenango Co, NY near Plasterville at age 66.

The grave of Thompson Mead was discovered in 1907 by Augie Mier, at a time when the Pioneer Cemetery, Batavia, IL cemetery had long been abandoned. Notes for COL. JAMES MEAD:

He lived in Dutchess Co. but left in 1769 and went to VT with his father where he purchased land in Sep 1769 while residing in Manchester, VT. James was called "the first white man to permanently settle in the town of Rutland (Rutland Town History). Colonel James Mead served in the Vermont Militia during the Revolution, and served at Ticonderoga June 29 to July 8, 1777. He owned a tavern located at the northeast corner of the old East Proctor Road and Route 4. "At a very early date, he erected a gristmill and a sawmill at the falls in Center Rutland which for many years bore his name. It is said that he kept a canoe on each side of the creek before the soldiers built the bridge in 1776" (Swan, 1990, p. 247). He married (1) AGNES WILSON Abt. 1774 in PA³¹. She was born Abt. 1752, and died 1796 in Meadville, PA. He married (2) JENNY FINNEY 1797 in Meadville, PA, daughter of ROBERT FINNEY. She was born Abt. 1760.

Notes for MAJ. GEN. DAVID MEAD:

The Hon. David Mead was a pioneer to the waters of French Creek and one of the first settlers (with his brother John) to the village that became Meadville, PA. Meadville "was the first permanent settlement in northwest Pennsylvania" (www.maic-redi.com/meadhstory.htm). On 12 May 1788, David camped near the present site of the Mercer St. Bridge, Meadville, PA with his three brothers, Darius, John & Joseph Mead. In the fall, they all brought their wives and families from Northumberland Co. David's father, Darius Mead, Sr., arrived in 1789 along with Frederick Haymaker and others. Frederick's son, Allen, would later marry Eliza Mead, a distant cousin of Darius Mead.

The first white child born in Crawford Co, PA in what was known as Mead's Settlement, was David's daughter Sarah, who later became the wife of the Rev. Mr. Satterfield of Mercer Co. Indian attacks became so frequent and deadly that all the white settlers abandoned Meadville, and in 1792, they had all left. About 20 families returned in the spring of 1793, but they left again in summer when they received word of more attacks from the western Indians. In 1794, a blockhouse was built for protection. Several years of conflict with local Indians ended 3 June 1795, and the first school was built that year. David received his patent of land in Meadville from the commonwealth of PA in 1796. Crawford Co was organized on 12 March 1800 and David Mead was appointed one of the Associate Judges, but resigned the following December. He was listed on the 1800 census in Meadville. During the Revolutionary War, he was 2nd Ensign, Col. Hunter's Battalion, Captain John Simpson's Company, PA. He was appointed Major-General during the War of 1812. Gen. Mead was described as being well proportioned, of striking appearance, and of great strength (Mead, 1901), and was said to be 6' 3" tall.

"David Mead was born at Hudson, NY, in 1752, son of Darius Mead, who settled at Wyoming upon lands obtained under PA title. A conflicting CT claim having obliged him to relinquish his improvements, he located in Point township six miles above Northumberland on the North Branch, whence the family removed to Sunbury at the commencement of the Revolutionary War. There David Mead kept a hotel and established a distillery. He was elected county commissioner in 1782 and served one term. In 1787, accompanied by his brother John, he made a journey to the region west of the Allegheny river; they returned in the spring of 1788 with seven others and established the first settlement in southwestern PA at the site of Meadville, Crawford Co. David Mead was actively connected with affairs in that part of the State until his death..." (Bell, 1891).

Notes for JENNY FINNEY: Prior to her marriage, Jenny opened the first school in Meadville in a log house on North Market Street in 1795. The old blockhouse was converted to a schoolhouse by David Mead, her husband, and it was opened in the winter of 1798-99.

Abner's children and their birthdates are from History of Rutland County Vermont, 1886.

"The flock owned by the late Capt. Joseph SHELDON, of Fairhaven, was one of the finest showing flocks in the State. Another fine flock was the old 'Mead' flock of JARVIS sheep, purchased by Esquire Abner MEAD, and bred a long time by him, and afterwards by his son, Andrew Jackson MEAD. In the early days, Mr. MEAD would drive a lot of fine cattle over to Weathersfield, Vt., the home of Consul JARVIS, which he would there exchange for a few small Merino sheep, bringing them over the Green Mountains in a lumber wagon. Since this time the MEAD farm, at West Rutland, has always been noted for its sheep breeding. The Merinos early imported from Spain by Consul JARVIS, would only shear ewes, from three to four pounds, and rams, from four to seven pounds, the fleeces shrinking, by cleansing, from one third to one half their weight. After a time, from this stock, Abner MEAD bred a ram which became quite noted, and was widely known as "Old Tiger," and which sheared a fleece of seven pounds weight" (source: Gazetteer and Business Directory of Rutland County, VT.: 1881-82, Compiled and Published by Hamilton Child; Syracuse, N.Y.; Printed at the Journal Office, August 1881, Pages 33-54, Transcribed by Karima Allison 2004, http://www.rootsweb.com/~vermont/CountyHistoryRutland_1.html).
