Generation No. 1

1. SAMUEL⁹ MEAD (JOHN⁸, WILLIAM⁷, PRICILLA⁶, RICHARD⁵ MEADE, THOMAS⁴, THOMAS³ MEDE, THOMAS², THOMAS¹) was born June 08, 1678 in Stamford, Fairfield Co, CT, and died Bef. October 07, 1713 in Groton, CT. He married (1) HANNAH WILSON. She died Aft. 1713. He married (2) ANN Abt. 1695. She was born Abt. 1678.

Notes for SAMUEL MEAD:

On August 23, 1700, Samuel was granted a parcel of land, presumably in Greenwich (source: Mead, Spencer P., LL.B., Ye Historie of Ye Town of Greenwich, County of Fairfield and state of Connecticut, Camden, Maine: Picton Press, 1992, originally published in 1911, p. 473).

Samuel received 5 shillings in his father's will, along with land and a house. His father instructed Samuel to give a room to his widowed mother, and it was to be a room of her choice. Spencer Mead (1901) has different birth dates for all these children, but I have chosen to go with the preponderance of evidence. On 27 Feb 1710, Samuel Mead was "chosen to keep a house of publick entertainment" (Mead, 1911, p. 50). Letters of administration on his estate granted to his widow Hannah on 7 Oct 1713. His property was inventories on October 30, 1713 by Taken by Timothy Knapp and John Reynolds.

Notes for ABRAM MEAD:

According to DAR records, Abram and Ruth had 13 children, and Enos was the 6th child. Abram applied for a land grant before the Revolutionary War from the Crossfield and Totten Purchase. The war broke out before it was granted. After the war, his son probably reapplied to the colonial government, along with others from the original application, and the patent was granted. It was located in Warren Co, NY in the "wilds of Chester" now known as the town of Pottersville. The county seat of Warren Co. is Lake George. Although Abram never went to Warren County, as far as we know, several of his children did go there after his son, Enos, deeded land to them. A sad aspect of Abram and Ruth's life is that two of their sons and a son-in-law died during the Revolutionary War. Letters of administration were granted on July 10, 1776 to Henry Mead and Abraham Mead, Jr.. Abram is buried in the Mead Plot, Clapboard Ridge, Fairfield Co, CT.

Notes for RUTH LYON:

Ruth was christened on October 29, 1732 in Greenwich at 2nd Congregational Church. Abram's estate was sold on February 01, 1792 and ordered distributed to his widow and 10 surviving children on May 08, 1792 (source: Transcribed by Caralynn Brown, CT Vital Records from Barbour 1640-1848, Greenwich, Fairfield County). It was more than 10 years after he died that his estate was distributed to her and her children. 1790 census, Norwalk & Stamford, Fairfield Co, CT: Widow Ruth Mead (2 -1 -9). Next three households listed were Daniel Mead (1-2-1), Jotham Mead (1-1-3) and Enos Mead (1-3-1). It is presumed they were three of her older sons. On the next page was Widow Sibela Mead (1-0-1-1). In 1832, Jotham was living in Wethersfield, Genesee Co, NY. On 10 July 1837, Jotham testified before a court of Probate concerning his brother, Enos, who had applied for a pension. Jotham had also served during the Revolutionary War. He is buried in Weathersfield Springs, Wyoming Co, NY in St. Clement's Cemetery. ENOS¹² MEAD (*ABRAM*¹¹, *ELNATHAN*¹⁰, *SAMUEL*⁹, *JOHN*⁸, *WILLIAM*⁷, *PRICILLA*⁶, *RICHARD*⁵ MEADE, *THOMAS*⁴, *THOMAS*³ MEDE, *THOMAS*², *THOMAS*¹) was born May 03, 1761 in Greenwich, Fairfield Co, CT²⁸, and died September 05, 1838 in Greenwood, Steuben Co, NY prob. West Union²⁹. He married PRUDENCE ANDERSON September 26, 1782 in Greenwich, CT by Rev. Murdock. She was born June 13, 1763 in Greenwich, Fairfield Co, CT, and died June 06, 1847 in Greenwood, Steuben Co, NY.

Notes for ENOS MEAD:

Enos Mead was born on May 3rd, 1761 in Greenwich, Connecticut, the sixth of the thirteen children of Abraham Mead and Ruth Lyon. His birth was recorded in the Greenwich Town Records. He married Prudence Anderson on 26 September, 1782 in Greenwich, CT. They were married by Rev. M. Murdock, a Presbyterian Minister in Greenwich. Enos served in the Connecticut Militia as both a Private and a Corporal. He was only 16 when he entered the military and was 18 when discharged. He served under Captains Isaac Howe, Hoit, David Wood, Benjamin Green, Sylvanus Marshall, and John Hobby. Most of his tours of duty entailed patrolling the bridges between Connecticut and New York along the Miamos River. His tours took him from Greenwich, CT to Mamaroneck, NY. According to his deposition he was on patrol the day Putnam rode down the rocks at Horseneck, CT. The British raided Greenwich on 26 Feb 1779, but so far no record has shown whether Enos had a role in the city's defense. Enos' service is recorded in Lineages of Hereditary Society Members, 1600s- 1900s, 259. Lineage Books of the N.S.D.A.R. Vol. III, Ancestor's Index, p. 259. His pension application is in my files (Revolutionary War Pension Application, Washington Co, VT, Certificate 10793).

In 1789, the NY State Legislature had passed a law to allow settlement of land in Tompkins County by former Revolutionary soldiers. This land between the Seneca and Oneida Lakes was afterwards known as the "Military Tract." Enos may have been given some of this land since he lived in Tompkins Co. NY for a time.

On March 11, 1791, Enos Mead deeded to his brothers and sisters a great many lots belonging to his father, Abraham. He filed a map in 1791 of Township 24 Hyde Township, Warren Co, NY. Owners of the lots were Abraham Mead, Enos Mead, Benjamin Mead, Jr., Titus Mead, Nehemiah Mead, Eliphalet Mead, Jeremiah Mead, Eliphalet Mead Jr, Elkanah Mead, Jonah Mead and others (Letter to C.E. Parker from Caroline Fish, 30 Jan 1968).

After the close of the war, he moved his family to New York, where they lived in different parts of the state ending up in Greenwood, Steuben Co. Notice that several of Enos' children married children of Jasper Mead, who lived in Warren Co, NY. This means that Enos probably also lived in Warren Co, NY at some time. The following timeline was constructed on 10 Aug 2006. It may not be accurate.

1788 - Enos lived in Albany Co, NY

1790 census, Saratoga, Albany Co, NY - Enos Mead and Levi Mead listed as heads of family (this may not be Enos Mead, b. 1761 since it appears he was still in Greenwich in 1790, living near his mother).

1791-1793: Enos may have been in Stillwater, NY

1800 census, Chester, Warren Co, NY - is he the Eanes Mead, Jr?

1810 Census Substitute for Cortland County, NY: (Cortland County Early Settlers Database, www.rootsweb.com/~nycortla/es/list.htm)

July 01, 1825 census of the Town of Danby, Tompkins Co, NY, along with his son Sanford, also listed as a Head of a Family. Enos moved from Newfield, Tompkins Co, NY in 1827, but it is not yet known when he went to Tompkins Co.

1827 - Greenwood, Steuben Co. was formed and Enos was the first to clear land west of 'Krusen's Corners,' where he contracted for 1,050 acres of land. At the first town election of Greenwood, held 6 mar 1827, Enos was elected a Constable. His son, Alvin, who came a few months later, brought the first wagon into that part of town, his brothers chopping the road ahead for him to drive through (source: Clayton, 1879).

1827 - Enos formed a class at the Methodist Episcopal Church of Greenwood (source: Greenwood Churches, (Methodist Episcopal Church of Greenwood), "Electronic."

11 Oct 1828 - The Methodist Episcopal Church was organized in Tyrone, NY and Enos was among the first members.

1830 census, Greenwood Twp, Steuben Co, NY

In 1832, Enos applied for a pension, which was allowed.

Enos and Prudence are buried in Mead Settlement Cemetery, Greenwood, Steuben Co, NY (source: Allen, Donna (walked & photographed), Mead Settlement Cemetery, Steuben Co, NY, (paintedhills.org).

His descendants hold a Mead Reunion in Coudersport, Potter Co., PA every year. "One of his 4th great granddaughters is our own registrar, Barbara Morten who was born in Hornell, Steuben County, NY and now resides in Gaithersburg, Montgomery County, MD" (Source: Colonel Tench Tilghman DAR Chapter - Biographies, Daughters of the American Revolution Bethesda, Maryland).

Notes for PRUDENCE ANDERSON:

1840 census, Greenwood, Steuben Co, NY: Prudence Mead, age 70-80, with a woman age 30-40. They lived next door to Alvin Mead and two doors away from Sanford Mead.

The widow, Prudence Mead, received a pension based on her husband's Revolutionary War service of $65 per year, which commenced 4 March 1843. She is probably the daughter of Isaac Anderson.

She was buried in Mead Cemetery, Greenwood, Steuben Co, NY.

Children of ENOS MEAD and PRUDENCE ANDERSON are:

28. LEMUEL¹² MEAD (ABRAM¹¹, ELNATHAN¹⁰, SAMUEL⁹, JOHN⁸, WILLIAM⁷, PRICILLA⁶, RICHARD⁵ MEADE, THOMAS⁴, THOMAS³ MEDE, THOMAS², THOMAS¹) was born April 01, 1763 in Greenwich, CT, and died January 18, 1826 in NY?. He married JERUSHA POOL June 24, 1802 in Prob. Greenwich, CT. She was born Abt. 1780, and died August 17, 1860.

Notes for LEMUEL MEAD:

According to Spencer Mead, Dr. Lemuel Mead died in 1826, but the place of his death was not mentioned. There was a Lemuel in Minerva, Essex Co, NY in the 1820 census, and he could be the son of Abram. Since all of his children ended up in Wyoming Co, NY, I wonder if he died there. Lemuel's brother, Jotham Mead moved to Wyoming Co. NY sometime between 1830 - 1832, and most of his children also lived there.

1820 census, Minerva, Essex Co, NY: Lemuel Mead (age 45+) with 5 boys under 18, one girl under 10, and his presumed wife (25-45).

Notes for JERUSHA POOL:

1830 census, Chester, Warren Co, NY: Jerusha Mead (age 50-62) with a female (10-15), a male (10-15), and two males (20-30). She lived near Andrew Mead, Sharach Mead, and Jasper Mead.

1840 census - not yet found

I have not been able to locate Jerusha Pool Mead in the 1850 census, so it's possible that she remarried and moved elsewhere. She was not living with any of her children in 1850 or 1860.

Children of LEMUEL MEAD and JERUSHA POOL are:

- 57. i. WILLIAM H.¹³ MEAD, b. April 23, 1804, NY; d. December 15, 1880.
- 58. ii. JOHN P. MEAD, b. March 12, 1806, NY or NJ; d. 1889, NY.

Early settlers [in Fitchville Township, Huron Co, OH] were Peter Mead, Abraham Mead and Amos Reynolds, who arrived in the summer of 1817. "The Meads came from Carmel, Putnam Co, NY but were originally from Connecticut. Amos Reynolds came from Westchester county. They were forced to cut a road into the township. Immediately upon their arrival, they prepared the ground for a crop of corn, and then built log cabins to house their families who meanwhile had no shelter but that of the wagons. Abraham Mead, after clearing several acres of land, became dissatisfied with his location. Desiring to get as close to the center of the township as possible, he measured it off each way by rope and a pocket compass, and took possession of the land lying near the center. It was here that the little village of Clinton was later built. The first white child born in the township was Varney P., son of Peter and Alice Mead."

She was born July 25, 1785 in Greenwich, CT, and died January 19, 1868 in Cass Twp, Jones Co, Iowa.

Notes for ABRAHAM "ABRAM" MEAD:

Since his first three children were reportedly born in Chester, Warren Co. NY, it appears he lived there at least 1803 - 1811. Proof is needed. Was he listed on the 1810 census in Warren Co? One fact that supports his residence in Warren Co. NY is that his wife Rachel was born there and her parents lived there from 1799 until they died. It was Abraham's father who deeded land around Chester, NY to his siblings after the Revolutionary War. Abraham's 4th child was born in Cortland Co, so it is presumed he moved there around 1813-1814.

Solon, NY was formed 9 March 1798 from the town of Homer. It is located near the center of Cortland County. Abraham is listed on the 1820 Cortland Co, NY census index for Solon, the 1840 Cortland Co., NY Census index, and his name is listed in the Cortland County Will Index, Books A-C, C66. He is buried in Upper Cincinnatus Cemetery, Cincinnatus, NY.

Notes for RACHEL R. MEAD:

After her husband's death Rachael continued to live on the family farm with her son Jasper Nathaniel until about 1857, when she and two daughters, Eliza and Harriet, moved to Jones Co, Iowa, where her son George Wesley lived. It's likely that William A. went with his mother and sisters to Iowa since he appears in Iowa on the 1860 census.

1850 census, Cincinnatus, Cortland Co, NY: Nathaniel Mead (23), Rachel Mead (63), and her two daughters Elisa (28) and Harriette (21). Property valued at $1600, and Nathaniel was a farmer. No occupation was given for Nathaniel's sisters.

On the 1860 census, Rachel was in Cass, Jones Co, Iowa, living with daughter Eliza. She is buried in Riverside Cemetery, Anamosa, Jones Co, Iowa.

THE JONES COUNTY POOR FARM (source:

http://www.poorhousestory.com/IOWA_JonesCounty.htm)

from History of Jones County, Iowa, Past and Present

by R. M. Corbitt, S. J. Clarke Publishing Co., Chicago, 1910

"COUNTY FARM

The State of Iowa, through C. P. Hutton and T. S. Dawson, Commissioners of Jones County, donated to Jones County the northeast quarter of Section 36, in Wayne Township, on the 20th day of June, 1840.

This, with subsequent additions and modifications, constitutes the County Poor Farm." It now contains about 200 acres, and the county has occupied and improved it since about 1860. The first Steward was O. B. Doyle. It has been for ten years in charge of John Platner and his wife, who are regarded as thoroughly competent. General farming is practiced. The beneficiaries of the institution average fully twenty in constant attendance, and comprise nearly all nationalities and all colors, and all ages, from the nursling to the veteran of nearly ninety winters. The county is burdened with several who are incurably insane. While the policy of the county is to decline furnishing a comfortable retreat for all the lazy, able-bodied, willingly dependent applicants for its charities, nevertheless, the treatment of all its unfortunates is considerate and humane."

She married ALLEN R. HAYMAKER⁸² June 09, 1858 in Fairview, Jones Co, Iowa⁸³, son of FREDERICK HAYMAKER and MARY SWAN. He was born July 01, 1812 in Portage Co, Ohio or Beaver Co, PA, and died September 25, 1889 in Big Creek Twp, Neosho Co, Kansas (near Chanute) at home⁸⁴.

Notes for ELIZA A. MEAD:

It is known that Eliza's grandfather moved to Cortland Co, NY before 1810, and that her father, Abraham, died 1849 in Cincinnati (part of Solon until 1804). The first permanent settlers in Solon were Roderick Beebe and Johnson Bingham in 1794, and an early settler of Solon was Benjamin Beebe (probably cousins). Solon, NY was organized 9 March 1798, and the first church in Solon was formed in 1804. After her father died, the family lived for a while with her brother. In about 1856, Eliza moved with her mother and sister, Harriet, from Cortland Co, New York to Jones Co, Iowa, when she was 34 years of age. She had an older brother, George, who had moved to Jones Co, Iowa several years earlier. After her marriage she became step-mother to four children, including Anna Haymaker Hess. She and Allen sold property in Jones Co. Iowa on 22 May 1864 for the sum of $3,300. They sold more land on 23 July, 1866 to Silas Robbins for $450. It appears that the land was the property of Eliza since she is listed first on the document. According to her obituary, she trained them up "with true material fidelity. Mrs. Haymaker's life was not an eventful one, but was marked by the beauty of Christian graces." According to her obituary, in 1834 she became a Christian and united with the M.E. Church. The discourse at her funeral was based on Job 14:14 and the funeral was attended by "a large congregation being present." After Eliza's death, Frank and Fred inherited their parents' land which adjoined the Reed property.

Notes for ALLEN R. HAYMAKER:

Allen Haymaker was born in Portage Co. Ohio or Beaver Co, PA in 1812, as the War of 1812 commenced, and five years after Aaron Burr was tried for treason. His father had distanced himself from Burr around the time the conspiracy was unearthed, by moving from PA to Ohio in 1806, near where his father and brothers were living in present-day Kent. Allen was the eldest son of Frederick's 3rd wife, Mary Swan, who was only about 23 when Allen was born into a family of at least 7 half siblings, aged 3 - about 15. By the time Allen was born, his father was well established in Kent as a business man who owned property in both Beaver Co, PA and Portage Co, Ohio, and Fred probably traveled back and forth often. Nothing is known of Allen's life or education as he grew up, but when he was about 24 years old, his parents moved to Newton Falls, Trumbull Co, Ohio. Fred corresponded during 1835 - 1837 with John Brown, the well known abolitionist, and Allen is mentioned in several of the letters. It's clear that he delivered at least some of the letters in person. Unfortunately, Allen left no written record of his interactions with John Brown.

Allen married his first wife in 1837, and they lived in Trumbull Co. and Defiance Co, Ohio as their six children were born between 1838 - and 1851. Allen's father died in 1850 and, in about 1851, he moved to Defiance Co, Ohio. After 1851, he moved his family to Madison Township, Wayne Co, Iowa. He has not been located on the 1850 census. He and Rhoda were listed in the Madison Twp, Wayne Co, Iowa census in 1856. He was listed as age 45 and Rhoda's age was 39. Their children were: Edwin, 18, Marion, 17, Frederick, 15, John, 13, Charles, 7, and Antoinette, 4. Allen's occupation was farmer and he was a voter. At that time the population of Wayne was 313. After Rhoda died, Allen quickly married Eliza A. Mead. Allen and Eliza moved to Kansas in 1869, only 15 years after it was opened to settlement, and he stayed in Big Creek Township for the remainder of his life. In 1870, he purchased 160 acres of farmland in Leanna, KS. His family lived next door to Aaron W. Reed's family, and their children went to school together. He was listed as a farmer on the 1880 census along with wife Eliza and sons Frank and Fred L. Also living with the family was Eliza's sister, Harriet, a widow and teacher, aged 51. His obituary states, "for more than 13 years, Mr. Haymaker was an invalid, and suffered intensely. He was a man of high character, and bore a good name wherever he was known." Allen died at age 77; he and Eliza are buried in Leanna Cemetery, Neosho Co, Kansas.

She was born June 13, 1860 in Crittenden Co, Kentucky near Marion, and died July 26, 1935 in Savonburg, Allen Co, Kansas, age 75¹⁰³.

Notes for C.FRANK HAYMAKER:

Frank moved with his family from Iowa to Kansas when he was about 9 years old. He married the daughter of Aaron W. Reed, who lived one house down from his family. They were probably classmates in school.

1880 census, Big Creek, Neosho Co, KS: Frank was 19 and listed as a Farmer.

On 13 August 1900, Frank Haymaker, Carrie Haymaker, F.L. Haymaker, and May Haymaker sold One Square Acre of land in Neosho Co, Kansas to Josiah (?) School District 79 for a sum of $25.00. It is not known why they moved in about 1899 to Pittsburg, Crawford Co, KS.

1900 census, Pittsburg (Ward 4), Crawford Co, Kansas, at 4098 N. Broadway St. The index lists them as Hoyber: Frank, Carrie, and children Roy, Winnie and Harry (listed as Harland). Frank's occupation was Land Lord and Carrie's occupation was Land Lady. Since they didn't have borders, it's assumed they owned land or property.

Frank deserted his wife in 1906 (source: Divorce Decree), and eventually went to New Mexico where he raised horses. He lived in Cambray, New Mexico. His son Harry visited him once in New Mexico, according to Harry's daughter, but nothing is known of Frank's life after 1907. His burial was handled by J.A. Mahoney Funeral Home and Wheelers Mortuary. Information obtained by Gerald Reed in 1962 from the Deming, NM Chamber of Commerce shows burial in Mountain View Cemetery in Sunset Plot, Row 4, Lot 70. The online transcription of grave stones in Mountain View verifies his burial there.

Notes for CARRIE EUNICE REED:

In 1870, at the age of 10, Carrie Reed traveled with her parents and 4 siblings from Kentucky to a farm in Neosho Co, Kansas. The census shows that the Reed and Haymaker families lived one door down from each other in Leanna, KS. At the age of 21, she married her neighbor and schoolmate Frank Haymaker. Nothing is known about their married lives except that they had 3 children. Carrie, Frank and the children were living in Pittsburg, Crawford Co, KS in 1900, and the census indicates that she was a "landlady." The copy of her Divorce Decree indicates that Frank deserted the family in 1906. By summer, 1907 Carrie was living in Los Angeles, CA with Harry, age 15. She took him back to Kansas in the fall, and began divorce procedures on 7 Oct 1907, through her attorney Chris Ritter, waiving a jury trial. Carrie appeared in court on 14 Dec 1907 for the trial. Frank did not appear, and the divorce was granted. Carrie retained custody of her minor son, Harry, and she retained title to her property of 82 acres of land. She was back in Los Angeles by 25 Feb 1908, when she sent him a post card from the Hotel Lankershim. Her eldest son, Roy, was already married and living in Los Angeles by the time she moved there, but he is never mentioned in the numerous post cards that Carrie sent to Harry. In July 1908, Carrie took the train to Salt Lake City, probably because she suffered from rheumatism and hoped the weather would help. She arrived on 8 July, and wrote to her son, "If I get better of this rheumatism I think I will like it here." The next week, she wrote, "The weather is nice here and I don't freeze like I did in L.A. so am in hopes my rheumatism will get better in time." In September, Carrie was feeling better and she wrote to Harry about a visit to the Mormon Tabernacle to hear the organ recital. She was very impressed with the building and remarked that it had been finished when she was 7 years old. Carrie seems to have remained in Salt Lake City until after Christmas, 1908. She returned in Oakland, CA on 19 Jan 1909. My mother believes that Carrie ran a rooming house in Oakland California, but I have not yet found evidence to prove that fact.

There is evidence in Harry's post card collection that Carrie, and probably her 2nd husband Frank Lynn, visited Kansas in 1910, perhaps on their honeymoon. She was in Coffeyville, KS on May 10 and she indicated her intention to be in Iola to visit Harry in a few days. Carrie was back in Oakland, California by 4 Nov 1910 when she sent him a post card chiding him for not yet writing. She signed many of her postcards with the words, "love and kisses, Mama." Her final post card from Oakland was dated 21 Feb 1912. By 1920, Carrie and Frank Lynn were living on 19th Street in Oakland, California (US Census 1920, T625, Roll 89, p. 102). Frank was listed as an insurance solicitor. Carrie sent two post cards to her son in 1921, and they indicate she was living in Alameda, California. After Frank died in 1929, he was cremated in Tacoma, WA. Carrie went back to Kansas to live with family members. She had 11 grandchildren. She died of a heart attack is buried in the family plot at Leanna Cemetery, Neosho Co, KS. The name on her tombstone is "Carrie Lynn."

It is not known exactly when Roy went to California, but he was there by 1903 when he was married. His daughter Hazel died there in 1905. After his mother, Carrie, was divorced in 1907, she may have moved to CA to be near him. However, in the post card collection saved by Harry Haymaker, no mention was ever made of Roy. According to Harry's daughter, Roy and Harry had a falling out and didn't communicate for many years. Roy was divorced from his first wife about 1936. Cause of death was sudden coronary thrombosis due to a head injury in April 1944, which was caused by an auto accident. He is buried in Everett-Marysville, Snohomish Co, Washington.

Winnie attended school in Leanna, Kansas for 8 years. In 1899 she moved with her family to Pittsburg, Crawford Co, PA, and attended the city schools for 4 years. She finished the high school course in 3 years and graduated in English (from a yearbook page). Winnie traveled by train to Yellowstone Park in June 1907, and her post cards show that she also visited Minneapolis, Minnesota that summer. Winnie sent a post card to her brother Harry from Los Angeles in Nov 1907 and two others from San Bernadino, CA on 26 Nov 1907 and 25 Dec 1907. Her message indicates that she took a job, and "didn't get just what I wanted but will be satisfied for a while." On 6 Jan 1908, she sent a post card to her mother in Iola, Kansas, and it appears that she stayed in LA until the summer, when she went to work at a hotel resort called "The Tallac" in Lake Tahoe. In September 1908, Winnie moved to San Francisco, which she said she liked better than Los Angeles. In her post card from San Francisco, Winnie talked about the effects of the 1905 fire, which were still evident in 1908. The last post card in Harry's album from Winnie is dated 21 Feb 1912, and it was sent from Oakland. After her death from stomach cancer, Winnie was cremated by Oakwood Crematory, Tacoma, Pierce Co, WA on January 06, 1944.

He married OPAL MAUD KEIM September 22, 1912 in Iola, KS in the Church of the United Brethren in Christ¹²², daughter of JOHN KEIM and ANNA TIPTON. She was born October 06, 1891 in Near Russell Springs, Logan Co, KS, and died April 22, 1985 in Fort Worth, Tarrant Co, TX¹²³.

Notes for HARRY HARLAN HAYMAKER:

Harry Harlan Haymaker (grandfather of Mary Lou Cook) was born on a farm, and attended school at Leanna, Pittsburgh, and Iola Kansas. He finally quit school after the 8th grade because, although he liked to read, he didn't like something the teacher wanted him to do. His parents were divorced in 1907 when he was about 15 years old, and his mother and sister Winnie moved to California. Harry's post card collection shows that he was in Los Angeles during the summer of 1907, when his sister sent him at least 8 post cards while she traveled to Yellowstone National Park by train. Harry lived with the Snodgrass family in Chanute for about a year and, according to his daughter, he remained close to the Reeds throughout his life. There is evidence in the post cards that Harry's mother took him back to Chanute from California, and stayed with him at the Snodgrass farm for several months.

Sometime in mid-August, 1908, Harry moved to Iola, where he worked for a while as a machinist at a cement plant. For the first month, he received his mail via general delivery. Then the post cards show that he lived at 819 Jefferson Street for about 4 months. He moved to 211 South Chestnut Street in Iola in February, 1909 but was only there for a few months. By April 1910, he was in Iola, Kansas boarding with the John C. Keim family, and that is undoubtedly how Harry and Opal met (1910 census, Iola, Allen Co, Kansas). Harry's daughter said that Anna A. Tipton, Opals' mother, didn't want him to marry Opal because he smoked.

After he and Opal were married in Iola in 1912, they went to California on their honeymoon, probably to see his mother. They rode the ferry to Catalina from Oakland. Mother says he was sick with pneumonia and pleurisy around that time and was very ill. Anna Haymaker Hess loaned them her house in Chanute, KS. During WWI, he was drafted but discharged on August 09, 1915 as unfit for duty due to nervous problems ("neurosthenia"), even though he was a precision machinist. His daughter remembers that he had a toolbox with velvet-lined drawers that contained levels & squares. He and Opal moved to South bend, Indiana 17 April 1917 and lived in Coquillard Flats (apartments close to downtown). It is likely that they chose South Bend because her Uncle Adam Keim lived there. Harry worked for Singer, where he finished cabinets, and later he worked for Studebaker until he retired in 1956. According to his daughter, Mary, in every house where they lived, Harry cut a hole in the ceiling to the attic so firemen wouldn't have to cut into the house. On one occasion, Mary remembers that Harry's mother, Carrie Reed, came to visit after her 2nd husband died in 1929. When Carrie died in Kansas, Harry was very upset because he had no money to make the trip to Kansas. Relatives sent enough money for Harry to take a bus to Kansas, and he was able to attend the funeral. Harry and Opal celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary in 1962 with all four of their children in attendance. A reception was held for them at St. Paul's Memorial Methodist Church on Sunday, Sep. 23, 1962. Harry was a heavy smoker of Camel cigarettes, and he developed gangrene in his lower legs as a result of the smoking and diabetes. In about 1960, both of his legs were amputated below the knees, and he was wheelchair bound for the remainder of his life. His cause of death was subarachnoid hemorrhage, generalized atherosclerosis, and diabetes mellitus. Harry and Opal are buried October 08, 1969 in Highland Cemetery, South Bend, IN.

Notes for OPAL MAUD KEIM:

Opal was born near Russell Springs, Logan County, Kansas, and likely lived for a while in a sod house. After her grandfather Tipton's death in 1896, the family moved back to Westphalia, Anderson Co, KS and lived until the early 1900s at the Tipton homestead. As a young woman, Opal worked for a time as a telephone operator in Iola. Her father had gone to college, and she could have done so also, but she chose to work instead. She played the pump organ for a church in Kansas. During the depression, the family received help from her sister Hazel, who often brought food from the Warner farm. When her husband lost his job, Opal worked in the "Frances Shop" a fashionable women's dress shop in South Bend. She became an expert seamstress like her mother, and specialized in alterations. Her granddaughter, Mary Lou, remembers that Opal had several women customers who regularly came to her home at 304 East Donald Street, South Bend, Indiana, to have their hemlines lowered or raised depending on the current fashion. Opal would sit on the floor with her pin cushion on her wrist, pinning up the new hemlines. Opal made Mary Lou's wedding dress by taking a pattern and altering it to match a store-made gown. In addition to her sewing work, Opal was a devoted and expert gardener. During the summers in South Bend, she kept a beautiful garden of flowers along with vegetables like tomatoes, carrots, onions, and beans. She especially loved "moss rose" and rose bushes, and she always had fresh cut roses in her home. Every summer Opal canned tomatoes and peaches, and the family enjoyed fresh food all through the winter. For most of her adult life, Opal suffered from a digestive problem that forced her to recline after a meal. To prevent health problems, she took regular walks throughout her life, never smoked or drank alcohol, and maintained a healthy weight. She avoided caffeine, and drank Postum every morning because she wanted a hot drink. For most of her adult life, she was a member of St. Paul's United Methodist, where her funeral service was held. Opal regularly read "Prevention Magazine" and "Guideposts." The fact that she lived 93 healthy years is a testament to her lifestyle. Opal is #13886 in the book "Descendants of Barbara Hochstetler." In about 1983, Opal moved from her apartment in South Bend, IN to her daughter's home in Fort Worth, Texas.
